BS9009W  Salvation

This unit surveys various models of salvation in the Bible: exodus narratives, return from exile, social and ecological dimensions of eschatological prophecy, messianism, reconciliation, atonement and resurrection. Key biblical texts will be examined in relation to their cultural and historical contexts, with attention also being given to the hermeneutical relationships between selected biblical models and systematic theology.

Upon successful completion of this unit, students will be able to:
1. Describe a range of models of salvation in the Bible
2. Rigorously exegete a biblical text related to this theme
3. Demonstrate awareness of cultural and historical influences in the formation of salvation theologies
4. Reflect critically on the relevance of these biblical models and theologies for contemporary faith
5. Demonstrate an ability to engage in interdisciplinary research.
