CT3011W Death

Offered: 2017: Semester 2  [Also offered online – see CT3711W]

We humans simply have to talk about death! But what exactly is death? How shall we talk about it in ways that are honest, meaningful, and responsible? In this unit, students will undertake a theological investigation into the subject of death utilising the resources of Christian belief and significant thinkers in the Western tradition: from the ancient Greek poets and playwrights through to the cultural critics and philosophers of modernity.

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Identify and analyse a variety of ways that the Western tradition and Christian theological traditions have thought about death.
2. Critically evaluate such understandings in light of and in conversation with other resources employed by Christian theology.
3. Articulate a coherent theological response to the question ‘What is death?’
