

BA9004W Promised Land and Exile (BA9704W - Online)

Offered: 2018: Semester 1 (Also offered online Semester 1 – as BA9704W)

A study of selected texts relating to the themes of land and exile in biblical theology. The unit will bring exegetical reflections into dialogue with contemporary issues of ecology, migration, spirituality of dispossession, and the theology of hope.

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

1. Distinguish between the theologies of land in Deuteronomy and Leviticus
2. Analyse a range of responses to the exile in the Old Testament
3. Articulate similarities and differences between prophetic theologies of hope
4. Relate selected exegetical issues to contemporary debates about ecology, migration, the spirituality of dispossession, or hope
5. Reflect theologically on biblical texts and relate biblical studies to other theological disciplines in a research project at a postgraduate standard.
