Bonhoeffer in context

Bonhoeffer was a Christian in a world where religious institutions gave in to the Nazi regime.

What can we learn today from his example? What was his part in the resistance movement and ‘The Confessing Church’? Can we identify the sources of power and compromise and the means of resistance?

Leading international scholar Keith Clements helps us explore what the story of Bonhoeffer means for Christian identity today.

Bonhoeffer’s Theology in Historical Context with Rev Dr Keith Clements
Whitley College  50 The Avenue, Parkville
Intensive - 10-21 February 2014

This course is accredited at both undergraduate and postgraduate level through the University of Divinity and is eligible for FEE-HELP funding.

To enrol call 03 9340 8017
or visit www.whitley.org.au