

DA1001W Living the Faith

Offered: 2018: Semester 1

With the underlying purpose of making spiritual formation and the disciplines of discernment and self-discovery explicit to the educational experience from the students' first year of study, this unit is designed to provide participants with the basic skills and resources to make life-giving connections between theology and the practice of faith.

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

1. Listen sensitively and critically to their own story of faith
2. Examine a theological theme identified within their own life-narrative
3. Examine the concept of vocation and ministry vision
4. Articulate the contours of practical theology and its major sub-disciplines of ethics, pastoral care, mission and spirituality.

Prerequisites: Nil

Class Time: Three hours per week

Assessment:

Three reflection papers building from online forum discussion (500 words each)	(30%)
One theological reflection paper (1,000 words)	(30%)
One essay (1,500 words)	(40%)
