Reading the Bible through Mission-shaped Glasses

with Darrell Guder

Saturday 2nd June 2012
9.30 am to 3.30 pm,

Whitley College Theological Studies Centre,
50 The Avenue, Parkville.

Cost: $50 ($30 students)

Registration: By Tuesday 29 May, online at https://event.goregister.com.au/missionshapedglasses or by registration form.

More Information
Ross Langmead
9340 8021 (rlangmead@whitley.unimelb.edu.au)
Randall Prior
9340 8827 (randall.prior@ctm.uca.edu.au)

Program
9.30 am Register and tea and coffee
10.00 am Plenary address and questions: Professor Darrell Guder
11.15 am Small group discussion
12.15 pm Light lunch provided
1.15 pm Elective sessions
2.15 pm Panel discussion
3.30 pm Finish

Electives Sessions: (Choose one)

- Monica J Melanchthon, ‘Missional Hermeneutics for Women’s Emancipation: The Case of India’
  Monica J Melanchthon is the newly-appointed Professor in Old Testament Studies at the Uniting Church Theological College in the MCD University of Divinity

- Jione Havea, ‘Transiting hermeneutics, in the climate changing mission field of the Pacific’
  Jione Havea is lecturer in Old Testament Studies at the United Theological College in Sydney

- John Capper, ‘Despair and (Re-) Interpretation - A contemporary encounter with Lamentations’
  John Capper is a theologian and recently appointed Dean of the United Faculty of Theology in the MCD University of Divinity

- Chris & Beth Barnett, ‘Missional methodologies for multi-age Bible engagement’
  Chris Barnett is Children and Family Ministries Coordinator in the Uniting Church Centre for Theology and Ministry; Beth Barnett, a post-graduate student, was Children and Family Ministries Coordinator for the Baptist Union of Victoria

- Keith Dyer, ‘Mission in Mark: Still crossing boundaries’
  Keith Dyer is Professor in New Testament at Whitley College in the MCD University of Divinity

Co-sponsored by the Uniting Church Theological College and the Australian Association for Mission Studies (AAMS).
Public Lecture:
"Missional Church: Fad or Future?"

Friday 1st June 2012 7.30 pm

Venue:
Whitley College Theological Studies Centre,
50 The Avenue, Parkville.

This event is the Whitley College Annual Mission Lecture.
A collection will be taken to support international research students. Supper will follow.

---

About Darrell Guder

Rev Dr Darrell Guder is a leading theologian of the missional church movement, particularly exploring what it means to engage missionally in the postmodern West. He is Henry Winters Luce Professor of Missional and Ecumenical Theology (and until recently Dean) at Princeton Theological Seminary. A Presbyterian minister, he has served as secretary and president of the American Society of Missiology. His best known books include The Continuing Conversion of the Church (2000), Missional Church (editor, 1998) and Be My Witnesses (1985).

---

Please register by 29 May 2012

Alternatively, please send your registration form to:
Mission Shaped Glasses, Centre for Theology & Ministry, 29 College Cres, Parkville VIC 3052.
Or fax to: 03 9340 8805  Email: info@ctm.uca.edu.au

Please book me in Reading the Bible through Mission-shaped Glasses with Darrell Guder

First Name ............................................................. Surname ...........................................................................

Address ...........................................................................................................................................................

Postcode ....................Ph (BH) .....................................................Mobile .......................................................

Email ...............................................................................................................................................................

Dietary Requirements ....................................................................................................................................

Elective choice: (please tick one)

☐ Monica J Melanchthon, ‘Missional Hermeneutics for Women’s Emancipation: The Case of India ‘
☐ Jione Havea, ‘Transiting hermeneutics, in the climate changing mission field of the Pacific’
☐ John Capper, ‘Despair and (Re-)Interpretation - A contemporary encounter with Lamentations’
☐ Chris & Beth Barnett, ‘Missional methodologies for multi-age Bible engagement’
☐ Keith Dyer, ‘Mission in Mark: Still crossing boundaries’

Cost:

☐ $50  ☐ $30 (Student)
☐ Cheque/Money Order (Payable to the Uniting Church in Australia)
☐ Credit Card

Card Number__________/ __________/ __________/ __________

Expiry Date _____/ _____

Card Holders name ______________________________________

Signature_________________________________

A tax receipt will be issued and forwarded to you.